Wilmot's miners from Butte turned the tables on the tailenders at Walker's field yesterday afternoon, and gave them a sound walloping to the tune of 6 to 2.

Dowling and Thomas did the twirling acts, and the former got away with first-prize. While the local batters connected with him for nine hits, they availed little because of their scattered nature. Mr. Thomas had the pleasure of seeing ten, which he thought would fool the Butte batters, go sailing out into clear territory. And in addition to this, he walked a couple, and hit another at a critical point in the game.

THE REAL CAUSE.

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried

"Belse deserved to win the pennant. The people of Boise stood loyally behind Mc-Closkey when he was laboring under adverse circumstances, who never filinened when dire results were threatening Your people stood behind him loyally and always came to his rescue when more money was needed. Mr. McCloskey and his team won the pennant by clean, honest work. The individual members of the team all deserve unstinted praise for their efforts. They worked in perfect harmony which is largely the result of the knowledge Mas has of working men.

"The only regret I have to offer is that Loucks jumped us which left us in a crippled condition. We were in the lead by several games and had he not jumped us the pennant would have been ours to a certainty."

sveral games and had he not jumped us the penmant would have been ours to a certainty."

The winning of the pennant has in no wise changed the demeanor of Manager McCloskey. Naturally he must inwardly feel a thrill of joy, but outwardly he betrays no sign of exhultation. He says: "We fon that's all." Continuing, he said: "We won the pennant fair and square after many handleaps. We were late in getting started and had to get together a team after most of the players were under reservation and had to pick up players, here and there, wherever we could get them. The loss of Gus Kolopf, after we had signed him, left us crippled on third 'base. We had to experiment with Cook, Ward and others which sesulted disastrously and the loss of many games. This coupled with the bad habits of Elsev and Wright, and the long continued filness of Marshal lset us back early in the season from which it took us some time to recoverff. The filness of Marshall was just at a time when he was hitting the ball the hardest of any player in the league and was winning us many a game. He is far from being in good condition yet, and it will take him at least a year to fully recover and get back into his ol; condition.

"As to the individual members of the team they all deserve the very highest praise. They have all done splendid work and I am proud of them. They have departed themselves as gentlemen and have refected credit upon Boise wherever they have gone.

"Unless such a league as this can be organized," replied Mr. McCloskey, "I am afraid Boise will never be in a first class league on account of its isolation. If such a league could be formed it would certainly include Boise as it would break the jump between Sait Lake and Portland, Boise is a good baseball town and will be better as the city grows which it is bound to do. However, it will take some good organizer to bring this about."

Great Battle on Links at St. Louis for Championship.

Glen Echo County Club, St. Louis, Sept. 22.—The semi-final of the Olympian golf championship wil be played tomorrow by George S. Lyon of Teronto, Can, and F. C. Newton of Scattle, and B. F. McKinnie of St. Louis and National Champion H. Chandler Egen of Ex. Moor. Each of these golfers won his match in the third round today after struggles that were more or less hearispreaking.

match in the third round today after struggles that were more or less hearts breaking.

Seattle's young golfing wizard defeated Mason E. Phelps of Midlothiam, two up, one to play in a match that abounded in every phase of the game from the dazzing to the medicore, kewton, had a lead of one hole at the ninth green in the morning, which he lost later, and Phelps wound up the morning play two up on his Pacific coast opponent. Nip and tuck they fought the race in the afternoon, Phelps losing one hole of his lead at the twenty-seventh, where he sent his tee shot into the pond. The match was squared at the twenty-eighth by Phelps sending a ball into the ditch. Newton won the thirty-first and thirty-second holes and two up, four to go, the Seattle man picked up his nerve and won.

Egan had a surprise in H. W. Allen. The latter played a wonderfully accurate long game in the morning and was only one down to the champion. The latter gained no further advantage on his young rival unth the third green was reached in the afternoon, when, by holing a 10-foot putt, he became two up.

Winning the twenty-third and twenty-seventh holes, Egan assumed a commanding lead of four holes and held it to the end. Upon several greens allen either saved a hole for a half or won it from the champion by marvelous putting. Egan developed a fault of looking up from the ball and some of his putts were medicore as a result.

CHANCE FOR JOHNSON. Jeffries May Yet Decide to Fight the Big Black. The following interesting story comes

The following interesting story comes from San Francisco;
Champion Jeffries is expected to arrive in the east in a week or two. According to letters received from the champion by friends in this city the bollermaker is anxious to get back to Gotham. Jeffries has always found himself at home in this city and has remained here for months at a time, or, in fact, whenever the opportunity offered. After his battle with Corbett on the coast last year the champion returned to New York and remained here until after he had clinched his match with Munroe and went west to train for the miner.

Mannoe and went west to train for the miner.

Jeffries has given up all hope of setting on a match in the near future. There is only one man before the public in the heavyweight class who is taken seriously when mentioned with the name of Jeffries. That man is Joinson, colored heavyweight champion, who has been auxious to meet the champion for some time.

Jeffries has frequently aunounced that he will never fight any colored boxers. This statement, however, is not taken seriously by those who know Jeffries. The champion has fought colored men in the past. He fought thank Griffin, and late fought ten rounds with Bob Armstrong.

This would indicate that the champion is not strenously opopsed to fighting colored men and it cannot be said that he is holding off from Johnson because he has any fears of losing the championehip. A close friend of champion in speaking of Johnson yesterday said that he would not be surprised to see Jeffries fight Johnson at any time.

"There is only one reason why Jeffries refuses to fight ohnson," said the champion's admirer. "I have spoken to him about it frequently and it is a very good reason. He does not believe that there would be any big money in fighting ohnson and you know Jeffries is pretty indefendent when it comes to looking for swell purses. Jeffries does not believe that Johnson would draw very much money with him, and as he would have to train just as hard for him as for any other battle he is passing him up for the present.

I have no doubt but that if some clui "I have no doubt but that it some cut would guarantee a good sum for Johnson and Jeffries, the champion would not le it slip by. He is confident that he cal beat Johnson in quick order, and there is every reason to believe that he is right.

"Honest John" McCloskey wants to see Salt Lake, Boise and other towns, in an eight club league, Second the motion, John.

A friend of Jim Jeffries says that the big fellow is seriously thinking of with-drawing his obejetion to the color line, and may take of Jack ohnson. Well, the big black would make it interesting for the champion.

George Gardner has expressed a desire for a return match with Jim Flynn, the fight to take place at Butte, and to be of twenty rounds' duration. But the latest from Denver is to the effect that Flynn refuses to meet the Lowell man until at-ter he has had another crack at Jack Root. Jack should accommodate Jim and start him on a journey to the pines.

Iver Lawson is expected to arrive in New York within a few days, and after a short rest, will board the train for Salt Lake, the city he calls his home. When Iver arrives he will be presented with a handsome diamond medal. There is nearly $200 in the hands of Francis Heath to be furned over to the committee selected to purchase the medal and it may be depended upon that the committee will get the best that can be obtained for the money.
